PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Remember when a loft had very high ceilings and huge windows, filled with character and wrinkles? Well there is at least one left. Facing south overlooking a common roof is this vintage loft with nearly 14' ceilings and 9.5' windows reminiscent of a commercial Parisian flat. The apartment has a 24'x3' planting terrace, a sunken living room and is configured as a one bedroom. There is room for an interior den/second bedroom. Some updating is called for. The building façade is cast-iron and is located mid-block between Union Square and Fifth Avenue.
